Teach me, some music.

Out now! The first luav compilation!

More than 50 tracks have been selected by famous producer and sound engineer Pino "Pinaxa" Pischetola, who has worked with Depeche Mode, Robert Palmer, Eros Ramazzotti and many more.

The final outcome is a heterogeneous and high quality compilation, which will be officially presented at "Teach me, some music", the Festival of Visual Communication, this year entirely dedicated to music.
